

Learner Writing Magazine

Earlier this year NJALL held its second annual adult learner writing contest. The five entry categories were fiction, non-fiction, memoir, poetry and photography. Several winners read their work and received their awards at the annual NJALL conference on April 8th, 2016. All of the winners and selected other submissions have now been collected in our magazine entitled Insight.

You can download a free pdf of the magazine at this link.

We'd like to thank all of the students who participated and all of the teachers and tutors that made it possible. It is an honor to read the students' work, and we are happy to be able to share it with you now.

The call for submissions for the next contest will be distributed soon. We will also be looking for reviewers again, so please let us know if you are interested in joining the review committee (to njallmail@gmail.com).
